

MARK FRASER GRANT

Executive Coach • Facilitator

ABOUT

Mark Fraser-Grant is recognised leader in the global coaching industry after being the first licensee of CCI international, successfully creating and running an ICF ACTP Coach training academy in Africa. This led to speaking and facilitation engagements in UK, Belgium, Holland, Greece and Russia. He is a Consciousness Coach®, Executive Coach, Coach Trainer and Master Facilitator partnering with Star Leadership to offer quality effective interventions. Mark manages a portfolio of multi-national and local coaching clients in the oil/energy, financial services, FMCG and service industries. He supports companies in becoming organizations with a well-defined sense of purpose that are more effective, with fewer distractions and misunderstanding; while eliminating people-generated mischief such as gossiping and sabotage.

Mark has experience with clients in India, Europe and Africa normally dealing with CXO, EXCO and Senior Leadership teams. Mark also runs a self-development and leadership retreats internationally and is bringing this to Africa. With a blend of skills and many years' experience in human resources, training, recruitment, career counselling and development, Mark is dedicated to developing consciousness in individuals, executives, teams and organizations. He coaches his clients in self-awareness and development, conscious leadership, and effective relationship building. High Performance Collaboration and High Performing Teams are a speciality. Mark has also developed a case study that reduces staff attrition in the contact centre industry saving clients millions in talent retention.
